

Informing Research and Practice in Substance Use

3rd Annual CRISM Atlantic Symposium

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM

Memorial Hall, Confederation Centre of the Arts
145 Richmond St, Charlottetown, PE

DAY 1 - NOVEMBER 5, 2019

Registration - 6PM

Symposium Welcome Reception - 6PM to 9PM

- Welcome
Dr. Julie Bruneau, CRISM Quebec-Atlantic Node Principal Investigator
- The Canadian Research Initiative in Substance Misuse (CRISM): 4 Nodes – 1 Network
Dr. Shirley Wong, CRISM BC Node
Dr. Denise Adams, Steven Wintoniw and James Dixon, CRISM Prairies Node
Farihah Ali, CRISM Ontario Node
Aïssata Sako, CRISM Québec-Atlantic Node

DAY 2 - NOVEMBER 6, 2019

Registration - 8:30AM

Welcome - 9AM

- Blessing and Recognition
Elder Judy Clark, Abegweit First Nation
- CRISM Atlantic Greeting
Dr. Sherry Stewart, CRISM Atlantic Scientific Delegate

Session #1: Ways in which we are Informing Research and Practice in Substance Use - 9:15AM

- Strategies to Reduce Drug-Related Harms by Responding to the Evidence Based: A glimpse at the Lancet Series
Dr. Julie Bruneau, CRISM Quebec-Atlantic Node
- Youth and Young Adult Vaping: Big concerns and small promises
Dr. Mohammed Al-Hamdani, The Lung Association of NS & Smoke-Free NS
- Examining the use of CBT4CBT* in “real-world” settings in PEI and across Canada
Dr. Amanda Brazil, University of Prince Edward Island

* CBT4CBT: Computer-Based Training for Cognitive Behavioral Therapy

Break - 10:20AM

Session #2: The Island Lens on Substance Intervention - 10:40AM

- Addictions Services in PEI, the initiatives and future directions
Dr. Amanda Hudson, Government of Prince Edward Island
- PEI Data: Surveillance and Monitoring of Cannabis and Other Substances
Dr. Shamara Baidoobonso, Government of Prince Edward Island
- Cannabis and Psychosis: A call for critical research on PEI's population
Dr. Heather Keizer, Government of Prince Edward Island

Knowledge Translation Capsule: 5-Minute Thesis (5MT) Presentations - 11:40AM

Poster Session - NOON & Networking Lunch

Poster and 5MT Awards - 1:40PM

Session #3: Quebec-Atlantic Research Development - 1:45PM

Best Practices in Research: from the Front-line Community to the Clinic

- Building on the Patient-Centered Care Approach: A CMAJ Collaboration
Matt Bonn, HANDUP and HaliFIX, O.P.S and Dr. Tommy Brothers, Dalhousie University
- Working towards a Substance User Network in the Atlantic Region (SUNAR)
Cindy MacIsaac, Direction 180

From the Research Development Program: Atlantic Projects

- Evaluating the Impact of Prescription Monitoring Programs in Reducing Inappropriate Opioid Prescribing and Related-Harms
Dr. Mark Asbridge, Dalhousie University
- Opioid Use Following Opioid Prescription for Non-Specific Low Back Pain in Nova Scotian Emergency Departments
Dr. Jill Hayden, Dalhousie University
- Substance Use Cessation Therapies for Those At-Risk in Early Intervention Services for Psychosis
Dr. Candice Crocker, Dalhousie University

Atlantic Symposium Rapporteur Session - 3:20PM

